Passed Mar. 8.

An ACT to declare and ascertain the right of citizens of this state to private roads or ways.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the citizens of this state ought to have a road or way from their farms and plantations to places of public worship, to mills, market-towns, public ferries, and court-houses, and such benefit ought to be enjoyed and exercised with as little possible injury or damage to the lands through which such private roads or ways shall pass,

Citizens ought to have a road, &c.

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, and it is hereby declared, That every citizen of this state ought to have a road or way to and from their farms and plantations to places of public worship, and mills, market-towns, public ferries, and court-houses.

Courts may direct roads to be laid out, &c.

III. Be it enacted, That the several county courts in this state, on application, be authorized and required to direct the surveyor of their county to lay out any such private road or way, not exceeding sixteen feet clear of ditches in breadth, and to order such surveyor to lay out the same, with as little possible damage or injury as may be, and to make return thereof to the said court; and if any person through whose land such road may pass, or if the person applying therefor shall object to its running in the manner returned by the surveyor, the said court may make such order as to the course of the said road as they may think proper; and after
